

Please leave our No-Call List alone, these people call my mother in law in a nursing home to get her to buy things. they prey on the elderly and disrupt our evening quite hours after long days at work. If I want something I will buy it I do not need these people bothering me at home with their garbage.